

MEMORANDUM:

TO: Grant Review Committee
FROM: Adam Carpinelli, SJAC Secretary
DATE: Monday, February 14th 2022
SUBJECT: Letter of Support

Dear Grant Review Committee,

The Social Justice Action Center is excited to partner with Futel to produce Sidewalk Voices. This innovative art project will bring interactive creative expression opportunities to the neighborhood around our location at 400 SE 12th Avenue. The project supports our mission to build community offering a community space that also fosters arts integrated projects such as this and we look forward to the potential of working with Futel. In the last year we have been networking with Futel in order to explore artistic approaches to our Hygiene Station where we support our unhoused neighbors. We are part of the Buckman community and our community space is intended to be shared with the larger Portland community. We support funding opportunities for projects like this that help to find creative ways to bring people together in these days of uncertainty.

Sincerely yours,

To Whom It May Concern,

Sisters Of The Road is excited to partner with Futel to produce Sidewalk Voices. This innovative art project will bring interactive creative expression opportunities to Portland's Old Town and Chinatown neighborhoods while decreasing the technological isolation and marginalization experienced by our low income and houseless neighbors. Paired with Futel's mission to bring radically accessible communication opportunities to the people of Portland, we can continue our legacy and mission to center and amplify the stories of our most systemically oppressed community members.

Sincerely,

Lauren Armony
